

When two or more players of the same team intentionally lock the ball up on the ground and fail to knock the ball clear when either one of them is legally tackled by an opposition player, they will be penalised for holding the ball.

Flow chart of the Decision Making Process relating to Tackling the Player in Possession of the Ball:

